Murdered & Burnt

Bogadi lodge manager's charred body found at Jayapura Police limits

Missing gold chain cause for murder?

Mysuru, June 3 (KS)- In a swift breakthrough, Mysuru District Police have solved the murder of a 31-year-old lodge manager, Mohan Kumar, whose partially burnt body was found near Gumachanahalli in Jayapura Police limits on April 18. The murder is linked to a group of gamblers who suspected the victim of theft.

The deceased, Mohan Kumar, a native of Byadarapura in Chamarajanagar, worked as a manager at a lodge in Bogadi, Mysuru. Police have arrested four accused — Prajwal, Chandu, Kabir Kalaiah and Darshan, all from Bogadi. The prime accused, Srinivas, remains at large.

The murder: Investigations revealed that Srinivas and his associates frequently rented rooms at Bogadi lodge for gambling. On one occasion, Srinivas brought a 60-gram gold chain belonging to a friend to pledge it.

However, due to a full moon, considered not a good day for deals, the transaction could not take place. The gold chain subsequently went missing and Mohan, who was seen on the lodge's CCTV footage entering and exiting the room, was accused of stealing it.

Despite Mohan's repeated denials, Srinivas and his group continued to harass him, leading Mohan to stop reporting to work and return to his village.

On the morning of April 17, the accused travelled to Byadarapura in a car and picked up Mohan, who informed his family he was going out with friends. Inside the vehicle, Mohan was allegedly assaulted and died from his injuries. The accused then drove around Mysuru with the body, bought five litres of petrol from a fuel station and set the body on fire at Gumachanahalli to mask the identity of the victim. They finally dumped and burned the body before fleeing.

Gambling menace shifts to city outskirts

Mysuru, June 3 (KS)- With increased raids by Mysuru City and City Crime Branch (CCB) Police, illegal gambling and flesh trade activities within city limits have seen a partial decline.

However, these rackets have now shifted to the outskirts, thriving in lodges, farmhouses and service apartments.

Several establishments on the city's periphery have turned into hubs for gambling, flesh trade and cricket betting.

These places attract gamblers who willingly pay higher rents for rooms. While Police occasionally conduct raids based on tip-offs — penalising both gamblers and property owners — the operations often resume shortly after the raids end.

Unlike lodges, farmhouses and service apartments rarely come under the radar.

Even when Police act on intelligence, gamblers often spot the incoming Police vehicles and escape, leading officers to believe the tip-off was false and return without action.

Mysuru-Chennai bullet train project gains momentum

Land acquisition in Tamil Nadu and Andhra Pradesh nearing completion: NHSRCL Managing Director

Bengaluru, June 3 (KMS& BCT)- In a significant push to enhance connectivity from Mysuru to Chennai, the Central Government has accelerated the Mysuru-Bengaluru-Chennai bullet train project.

The ambitious high-speed rail corridor, spanning approximately 435 kilometres, aims to drastically reduce travel time between the three major cities.

The project, led by the National High Speed Rail Corporation Limited (NHSRCL), will feature a dedicated bullet train track designed for speeds up to 350 km per hour. Once operational, the train is expected to cut the current travel time of 6 hours and 30 minutes to just 2 hours and 25 minutes between Mysuru and Chennai.

NHSRCL Managing Director Nishant Singhal, after inspecting land acquisition activities along the Andhra-Karnataka border, confirmed that the process has picked up speed following directives from Prime Minister Narendra Modi.

SAINTLY CONDUCT: Whenever a person feels overwhelmed by problems in life, he would go to a temple or unburden himself to a guru and seek his blessings to overcome the same. This was particularly true of the 68th Pontiff of the Kanchi Math, Sri Chandrasekharendra Saraswati Sankaracharya, fondly known as Maha Periyava, said P. Swaminathan in a discourse.

A saint known for his travels to every nook and cranny, he was also known to camp in cities as well. Nearly 80 years ago, Maha Periyava was camping in the Sankara Math at Thambu Chetty Street in Parry's, Chennai. One day, after finishing his discourse, he suddenly entered the Kalikambal temple there and deeply impressed with the vibe, turned to the young son of the priest and blessed him to prepare well for a divine career in the temple. The young lad in later days came to be known as Sivachariar. Once, Sivachariar and Tiruverkadu Ramadas Swami were heading to the airport to take a flight to Hyderabad when they met with an accident. Passersby stood nonplussed on how to help, when the then Chief Minister, en route to Delhi, stopped at the accident site, ensured top medical aid for the two spiritualists, who were rushed to the government hospital.

As news of the accident went viral, Maha Periyava's Math was the first to send prasad to the two men. A steel rod was implanted in Sivachariar's right hand, which could have got in the way of his spiritual activities. For, as the priest, he had to perform certain mudras to the temple deity. Sivachariar sought an audience with Maha Periyava, who with his yogic power helped the priest not just heal physically but also boosted his morale. —In The Hindu

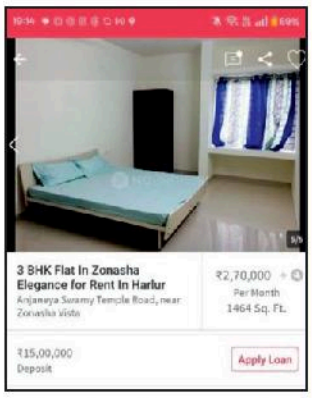
Rs. 2.7 lakh rent for 3 BHK leaves internet stunned



Bengaluru: A post quoting a monthly rent of Rs. 2.7 lakh for a 3BHK flat in Bengaluru's Haralur area has gone viral, reigniting the debate over the city's surging rental prices.

The now-viral post shows a screenshot of a 1,464 sq ft apartment listed for Rs. 2.7 lakh per month, with a Rs 15 lakh security deposit. The user questioned the asking price, writing: "Is this really something people pay for? The flat looks at best decent-ish."

The post struck a chord with many, attracting hundreds of comments from frustrated renters and locals. While some shared similar experiences with unaffordable housing, others criticised landlords and brokers for pushing up prices in relatively average neighbourhoods.

TISS Professor bats for General Pension and Health Insurance for senior citizens

Mysuru, June 3 (MTY&DM)- Mumbai's Tata Institute of Social Sciences (TISS) faculty Prof. R. Ramkumar said that the Centre should introduce General Pension and Health Insurance to cover all senior citizens of the country.

He was speaking at the inauguration of the 3-day 9th Quarterly General Conference organised by All India Insurance Pensioners Association(AIIPA) at a private Hotel near Highway circle in Bannimantap here yesterday.

Pointing out that the average life span of people in India was about 40-42 years in the Pre-independence era, Prof. Ramkumar said that the life span has now increased to 70-72 years because of advancements in the medical field and health care. But it is unfortunate that the Health and Insurance services have not been extended to cover this. It is not correct to keep out elderly citizens from Health Insurance, he said adding that these services must be extended to cover all elderly people.

Noting that at present, there are 17 crore senior citizens in the country, he said that this number is expected to reach 34 crore by 2047. According to a survey, about 40 percent of the senior citizen population is under the Below Property Line, while about 70 percent population of the country do not have an assured income. Stating that the Survey also showed that 54 percent of the senior citizens population is completely dependent on others, Prof. Ramkumar said that 75 percent of them are facing health issues. Expressing concern over rising suicidal deaths of senior citizens, he regretted that the Government was not up to the mark in providing social security and care to the elderly.

TISS faculty Prof. R. Ramkumar addressing the audience on the first day of the 3-day 9th General Conference of All India Insurance Pensioners Association (AIIPA) at a private hotel in city yesterday.

Maintaining that senior citizens are turning out to be a resource in European countries, Japan, China etc., he bemoaned that, but in our country, senior citizens are not considered as a human resource. Facilities cannot be provided to them if there is no increase in Per Capita income of the people, he contended.

"India is currently ranked the Fourth largest economy in the world and the country is expected to climb to the third spot shortly. This has been possible because of the huge population of the country. At the same time, one should note that India stands at the 127th spot among 196 countries of the world in Per Capita income. Though it is possible that India can become 'Viksit Bharath' by 2047, India may only reach the 90th position in world ranking in respect of Per Capita income and as such there can be no relation between India's economy size and life improvement", he argued.

Earlier, the conference Reception Committee Chairperson Prof. Sabiha Bhumigowda who delivered the keynote address, said that the Conference is expected to pass a resolution on opposing 100 percent FDI (Foreign Direct Investment) in the Insurance sector, withdrawal of Govt. shares in LIC and attempts to privatise the General Insurance sector. There is a need for launching a mass movement for forcing the Govt. to declare General Pension covering every person in the society, she added.

All India Insurance Employees Association President V. Ramesh, General Secretary Srikanth Mishra, AIIPA President Satanjib Das, General Secretary Kunhikrishnan, the Invitation Committee office-bearers S. Sridhar, C.R. Krishnamurthy, Balaram, Mahadevaiah, Rajendra and Umapathy were present.

Mysuru, June 3 (BS)- An elderly woman who was returning home after morning walk was allegedly robbed of her mangalsutra worth about Rs. 4.57 lakh at Nivedita Nagar in the city recently.

Restore traffic signal lights at Akka Mahadevi Road Junction

Sir,

I was very happy to see the traffic signal lights functioning regularly at Akka Mahadevi Road Junction after being inactive for over a year.

However, my joy seems to have been short-lived, as all the signal lights have now been switched off — except for the amber lights, which blink intermittently — after having worked perfectly for about two weeks.

Even the pedestrian signal lights have been turned off, leaving pedestrians at the mercy of motorists, who hardly slow down at the junction to allow safe crossing.

Both motorists and pedestrians felt safe when the lights were fully operational and everyone was diligently following the traffic rules. It is hard to understand why the other lights have been switched off. The blinking amber lights offer little practical benefit under the current conditions.

I strongly urge the authorities concerned to restore the traffic signal lights at the earliest, before any untoward incident occurs.

Kamal Haasan's controversial statement on Kannada

Organisations stage protest in city

Mysuru/Bengaluru, June 3 (GA, KS & Agencies)- Condemning the statement that 'Kannada was born from Tamil' made by popular actor Kamal Haasan, various organisations staged protests in city yesterday.

Kamal Haasan

Pro-Kannada activist Vatal Nagaraj, along with his followers staged a protest near Hardinge Circle (Jayachamaraja Wadiyar Circle) in city.

Speaking to media persons, Vatal Nagaraj demanded that no film of Kamal Haasan be released in Karnataka, the actor should be banned from the State and the Kannada film industry should think about it seriously.

Pointing out that Kannadigas are seeking an apology from the actor, who had refused to pay heed, Vatal Nagaraj said that the Chief Minister should file a case against Kamal Haasan and warned of intensifying the protest if the actor's forthcoming film 'Thug Life' is released in Karnataka.

He demanded all pro Kannada organisations to come together and call for Karnataka Bandh besides calling all Kannada actors to stand for the cause of Kannada.

Meanwhile, members of Karnataka Hitharakshana Vedike and Pathi Foundation staged a protest against the actor in front of Padma Theatre in Agrahara and burnt the actor's posters. They urged the actor to take back his statement failing which they warned that they would not allow the actor's upcoming film to be released in the State.

Former Corporators M.D. Parthasarathy and M.V. Ramprasad, Mysuru District Kannada Sahitya Parishat former President Chandrashekar and K.R. Bank President Basavaraj Basappa took part in the protest.

'Are you a historian or a linguist?'

Karnataka HC asks Kamal Haasan to apologise

The Karnataka High Court (HC) today reprimanded actor-politician Kamal Haasan over his remark that "Kannada language originated from Tamil asking him, "Are you a historian or a linguist?" The Court further asked him on what basis he had made the remark about Kannada.

"Right of speech cannot be stretched," the High Court ruled and asked Kamal Haasan to apologise.

The HC was hearing a writ petition filed by Kamal Haasan seeking urgent intervention for the smooth release of his upcoming movie 'Thug Life' and adequate security at theatres planning to show it. The movie is scheduled for release on June 5.

The actor had moved Court following the Karnataka Film Chamber of Commerce (KFCC) announcement of a boycott of the film unless the actor publicly apologises for his recent remark.

In the plea filed by the actor's production house Raaj Kamal Films International, the actor had requested the High Court to restrain any individual, group or authority — including the KFCC and State officials — from obstructing the screening of the film in Karnataka.

Former MP expresses anger over issuance of notice to Hindu leaders

Mysuru, June 3 (MTY&DM)- Strongly condemning the notice served by the Dakshina Kannada police to Hindu leaders and their externation over communal violence in that district, former Mysuru-Kodagu MP Prathap Simha said that the State Congress Government, instead of curbing the activities of anti-national organisations such as PFI and KFD, seems to prove that it is functioning like a Taliban Government by serving notices to Hindu leaders.

Prathap Simha

Speaking to press persons here yesterday, Simha said that the State Government has proved itself to be anti-Hindu by serving notices to prominent Hindu organisation leaders like Kalladka Prabhakar Bhat and Arun Puthila. Maintaining that the killing of Hindu leader Praveen Nettaru was the main cause of series of communal violence and fatal killings that have rocked the coastal districts, the former MP asserted that had stern action been taken against the culprits in Praveen murder case, the recent incidents of violence and murders would not have occurred. Questioning the issuance of notice to Hindu leaders, he expressed anguish that such actions of the Congress Government was aimed at silencing the voice of Hindu leaders.

Commenting on actor Kamal Haasan episode, Simha said Kamal's statement that Kannada was born out of Tamil was totally wrong. Noting that Kamal knows nothing about Kannada's history and the language's richness, it is unfortunate that some in Karnataka were supporting the actor at a time when the people of Tamil Nadu have rejected him.

Asserting that Kannada has its own identity and pride, he said that Kannada is the language of the land and is not a language that has come from elsewhere. Chiding Kamal Haasan for his immature and callous remarks, he said everyone should know that Kannada was not born out of any language.

Referring to the criticism of MP Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar by Karnataka Rakshana Vedike President T.A. Narayanagowda, Simha said that Gowda's statement that Yaduveer is a Prince sans any province, is not correct. Stating that though Narayanagowda has the liberty to criticise Yaduveer as a person, he said that it is wrong to drag the erstwhile Royal family into the matter. Maintaining that the Mysuru Maharajas have contributed a lot for Kannada land, language and culture, Simha said that everyone is indebted to the erstwhile Royal rulers for their work. Highlighting the contributions and foresight of Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar, he said that though some Sanskrit words have found place in Kannada, it would be totally wrong to say that Kannada was born out of Sanskrit.

"A dedicated rail corridor will be built for the bullet train," NHSRCL Managing Director Nishant Singhal said, highlighting that the route will pass through Tamil Nadu, Andhra Pradesh and Karnataka, with a total of nine stations planned across the three States.

One of the key stretches of the project includes a 77-kilometre segment running through Palamaner and Bangarupalem in Chittoor district of Andhra Pradesh, with a proposed station near Ramapuram (Palamaner).

Land acquisition activities are actively underway in 41 villages, involving around 876 farmers. Stone markers have already been placed and preliminary notices are being issued to landowners detailing the extent of land required.

Survey work and utility mapping are in progress, with NHSRCL awarding contracts for the preparation of General Alignment Drawings, identification of overhead, underground and overground utilities and locating suitable sites for power substations. The corridor will also feature several elevated bridges to ensure smooth, uninterrupted operation of the bullet train.

The alignment is being planned along the Bangalore-Chennai expressway between Hoskote near Bangalore, Karnataka and Sriperumbudur near Chennai.

While land acquisition in Tamil Nadu and Andhra Pradesh is nearing completion, the process has also begun in Karnataka. Officials say once land acquisition is finalised, the project will move into the construction phase at full speed.

At present, the fastest train on this route is the Vande Bharat Express, which takes 6.5 hours to cover the distance between Chennai and Mysuru. The bullet train promises to redefine this commute, drastically cutting down travel time and boosting economic activity across the region.

Tandan pointed out that tobacco and tobacco product exports touched an all-time high of Rs. 16,000 crore in 2024-25. He urged the Government to extend export incentives to enhance competitiveness against countries like China and Brazil.

Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar Jayanti

Free distribution of ration to Pourakarmikas tomorrow

Mysuru, June 3 (BLU&DM)- Mysuru-Kodagu MP Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar said that, marking Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar Jayanti tomorrow (June 4), the erstwhile Mysore Royal Family will launch free distribution of one-month ration to Pourakarmikas.

Speaking to presspersons at a private hotel here this morning, Yaduveer said that Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar was an 'Annadaata' (Provider of food) for everyone during his rule.

Pointing out that more than 3,500 Pourakarmikas will be distributed free ration (one month) at the programme to take place at Maharaja's College Grounds at 11.30 am tomorrow (June 4), he said Pourakarmikas will be treated as guests at the event.

Referring to a person climbing and sitting atop Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar Statue at K.R. Circle, Yaduveer said that he has urged the City Police Commissioner to take immediate action in this regard.

Stating that it is regretful to note that the incident, which took place in the heart of the city, did not come to the notice of the Police, he said there are many statues of the erstwhile Mysore Rulers and other great leaders across the city and all of them need protection from such indecent acts. He urged the authorities to take all necessary action to ensure that such shameful incidents do not recur in the future.

Yaduveer further said that there are plans to set up a drinking water Unit for public utility in the Palace premises and talks are on with Bisleri Water company in this regard.

Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar

Commenting on today's IPL finals, Yaduveer opined that our own RCB have good chances of winning the tournament for the first time. Stating that he would watch the final match, he said that in the past, RCB had failed to win the tournament despite reaching the finals four times. Now, the RCB is expected to win this time, he said while extending best wishes to the team.

Replying to a question on actor Kamal Haasan's statement that Kannada was born out of Tamil, the MP said that no one should talk lightly about Kannada. Stating that the Producer of Kamal Haasan's film has moved Karnataka High Court seeking a ruling in favour of release of the film in Karnataka, in the backdrop of Kannada organisations demanding a ban on the film in the State, he said that people of the State should teach a fitting lesson to such actors who belittle Kannada.

Commenting on reports that the Container Corporation of India facility at Kadakola was lying idle despite its inauguration over a year ago, Yaduveer said that the matter had not come to his notice and now, he would talk to the concerned authorities and take necessary steps for the functioning of the facility.

Bogadi lodge manager murdered

Cracking the case

On April 18, Jayapura Police registered a murder case after discovering the charred body. Simultaneously, Mohan's family lodged a missing complaint at Chamarajanagar Rural Police Station, stating he had left with friends the previous morning and hadn't returned.

While probing the missing person's case, Chamarajanagar Inspector Mohan discovered that Mohan's sister had received a call around midnight on April 17. Though she initially claimed it was a missed call, the investigation revealed it was a conversation with Chandu, one of the accused.

This lead was shared with Mysuru Rural Inspector Shivananjashetty, who traced the caller and detained Chandu. Under interrogation, Chandu confessed to the murder, following which three others — Prajwal, Kabir Kalaiah and Darshan — were arrested and remanded to Judicial Custody. Police are continuing the hunt for Srinivas, the main accused.

Mysuru District SP N. Vishnuvardhana formed a special team led by Dy.SP Kareem Rawther to investigate the case. Coordinated efforts between Chamarajanagar and Mysuru Police units played a key role in unravelling the crime.

Police said that the murder stemmed from suspicion and vengeance, following the disappearance of the gold chain and condemned the brutal assault and attempt to destroy evidence by burning the body. Further investigation is on.

Mysuru, June 3 (KS)- Nazarbad Police, on Mar. 25, have found a body of an unidentified man on the mud pathway adjacent to the south side compound of the Government Guest House and have registered a case.

Statewide survey identifies 821 neglected Heritage Sites

Ten ancient sites in Mysuru Taluk proposed for protected status under Conservation Project

Mysuru, June 3 (RK&BCT)- The Department of Archaeology, Museums and Heritage has intensified its commitment to preserving Karnataka's invaluable cultural heritage through a comprehensive State-funded initiative known as the 'Conservation Project' ('Samrakshana Yojane').

This Department plays a crucial role in safeguarding both tangible and intangible cultural assets by undertaking activities such as conservation of ancient monuments and sculptures, survey and documentation of inscriptions, study and exploration of ancient coins, excavation and research at historical sites, and village-wise surveys to record archaeological remains.

In addition, it also publishes research books, manages museums to protect historical artefacts and runs awareness programmes in schools and colleges to educate students about history and heritage. These multifaceted efforts are aimed at protecting and promoting the rich historical and cultural legacy of Karnataka.

As part of the 'Samrakshana Yojane,' which was implemented during the 2020-21 fiscal year, the Department launched a District-wide survey to identify and document neglected, unprotected monuments across Karnataka.

This included a wide range of heritage structures such as temples, palaces, pavilions, churches, mosques, stepwells, forts, sculptures and other significant sites.

The goal is to ensure that these unprotected monuments receive the attention they deserve and are preserved for future generations. The survey yielded significant findings, documenting a total of 821 heritage sites, which included 130 temples, 55 inscriptions, 613 sculptures and 23 other heritage sites.

Conservation plans in Mysuru

The first phase of the initiative began in the 2019-20 fiscal year in Mysuru taluk, covering 167 villages. In this phase, authorities conducted detailed surveys to identify and record unprotected monuments, inscriptions and sculptures to preserve their historical importance.

Among the discoveries made during the village-wide surveys were several Veeragallu (hero stones) and Mastigallu (memorial stones), along with other historically valuable artefacts.

To ensure their preservation, the Department has taken several proactive steps. Pedestals are being constructed in public and Government spaces to safely display and secure these sculptures. Additionally, the Department has proposed the protection of ten significant unprotected monuments in Mysuru taluk, recommending their formal recognition as protected monuments.

In total, 317 unprotected monuments identified through the survey have been proposed for official recognition, with formal recommendations submitted to district authorities.

The preservation plan includes key measures such as the installation of pedestals for sculptures, continued supervision and maintenance of unprotected monuments and initiating the legal process to declare these sites as protected heritage monuments.

To ensure Statewide coverage, the project is being expanded to include all 237 taluks in Karnataka. So far, surveys have been completed in 119 taluks. The remaining 118 taluks are scheduled to be covered during the 2025-26 fiscal year, ensuring comprehensive documentation and conservation of the State's rich archaeological and cultural remains.

Through this extensive and structured effort, the Department continues to lead the way in preserving Karnataka's legacy for future generations.

IPL 2025 awaits a new winner

Royal Challengers Bengaluru to take on Punjab Kings in finals today at 7.30 pm

Ahmedabad, June 3 (Agencies)- Royal Challengers Bengaluru (RCB) will take on Punjab Kings (PBKS) in the finals of the Indian Premier League (IPL) 2025 at Narendra Modi Stadium in Ahmedabad today (June 3) at 7.30 pm (IST).

Royal Challengers Bengaluru and Punjab Kings have never won the IPL. RCB has reached the IPL final thrice (2009, 2011, 2016) and returned home without a trophy. On the other hand, Punjab has earned a spot in the final for the first time in 11 years. In 2014, Punjab made its way into the final but fell short against the eventual winners, Kolkata Knight Riders (KKR).

Bengaluru and Punjab have played 36 IPL matches against each other so far. However, nothing separates the two as both teams have won 18 each.

Enroute to the final, the two teams locked horns in the Qualifier-1 as well, where it was RCB who emerged triumphant, beating PBKS by 8 wickets in a one-sided contest.

However, the Shreyas Iyer-led side have since beaten 5-time champions Mumbai Indians (MI) in Qualifier-2 to earn another contest against Rajat Patidar's team.

Reserve Day: Unlike Qualifier-1, Qualifier-2 and Eliminator, the Board of Control for Cricket in India (BCCI) has kept a Reserve Day in place for the IPL 2025 final. If the match isn't possible today due to rain, it will be completed on Wednesday (May 4).

If final is washed out on Reserve Day too, the team that finished higher in the league stage will be crowned champion. This means Punjab Kings would go on to lift the title.

Nagarahole Tiger Reserve safari timings, tariffs revised

Mysuru, June 3 (MTY&BCT)- To enhance visitor experience and manage crowd flow, the Forest Department has revised the safari timings and prices at Nagarahole Tiger Reserve, effective June 1.

The changes apply to all three safari centres in the Tiger Reserve Antharsanthe zone: Kakanakote (Dammanakatte), Veeranahosahalli in Hunsur taluk and Nanachi Gate near Kutta in Kodagu district.

Among these, the Kakanakote Safari Centre near the Kabini backwaters has consistently attracted the most visitors. Due to overwhelming demand, many tourists were often left without tickets.

The revised schedule and rates are expected to address this issue by increasing accessibility, a move that has been welcomed by wildlife enthusiasts.

At the Kakanakote Centre in H.D. Kote taluk, the earlier three-hour bus safari, priced at Rs. 865 for adults and Rs. 430 for children, has been replaced by two-hour slots. Jeep safaris, previously priced at Rs. 855 per person, have also undergone changes.

As per the new timings, safaris will now be held in four slots: 6 am to 8 am, 8.15 am to 10.15 am, 2.15 pm to 4:15 pm and 4.30 pm to 6.30 PM. The revised fare for the bus safari is Rs. 600 for adults and Rs. 300 for children, while the jeep safari now costs Rs. 1000 per person.

Revised safari rates

Safari Centre	Safari Type	Revised Rate	Duration
Kabini	Bus (Adult)	Rs. 600	2 hours
	Bus (Child)	Rs. 300	2 hours
	Jeep (Per Person)	Rs. 1000	2 hours
Veeranahosahalli	Bus (Adult)	Rs. 600	3.5 hours

Nanachi Gate	Bus (Adult)	Rs. 600	2 hours
	Bus (Child)	Rs. 300	2 hours
	Jeep (Per Person)	Rs. 1000	2 hours

At the Veeranahosahalli Gate in Hunsur taluk, bus safaris are conducted from 6.15 am to 9.45 am and 3 pm to 6.30 pm. The ticket prices have been standardised at Rs. 600 for adults and Rs. 300 for children. Jeep safaris here are also priced at Rs. 1000 per person.

Similarly, the Nanachi Gate Safari Centre near Kutta offers four safari slots daily — 6 am to 8 am, 8.15 am to 10.15 am, 2.15 pm to 4.15 pm and 4.30 pm to 6.30 pm. The updated ticket fares mirror those at the other centres: Rs. 600 for adults and Rs. 300 for children for the bus safari and Rs. 1000 per person for the jeep safari.

The camera charges have also been updated. DSLR cameras without telephoto lenses (70mm–200mm) can be used free of cost. For lenses between 200 mm and 500mm, a fee of Rs. 1000 plus GST will be levied. For lenses above 500mm, the charge is Rs. 1500 plus 18 percent GST.

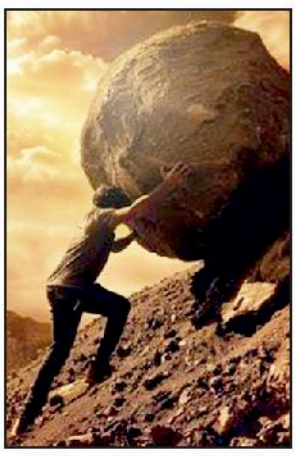
WORD OF THE DAY

Herculean



Pronunciation: her-kyuh-LEE-un (Adjective)
Meaning: Something described as Herculean (often uncapitalized as herculean) is characterized by extraordinary power, extent, intensity or difficulty.
Origin: The hero Hercules, son of the god Zeus by a human mother, was famous for his superhuman strength. To pacify the wrath of the god Apollo, he was forced to perform twelve enormously difficult tasks, or "labors." These ranged from descending into the underworld to bring back the terrifying dog that guarded its entrance to destroying the many-headed monster called the Hydra. The feats he accomplished explain how Herculean in the 16th century came to be used for any job or task that's extremely difficult or calls for enormous strength.
Example: "Strong doesn't even properly describe [Ashton] Jeanty's Herculean, how-is-he-doing-that kind of strength. Before his sophomore year of college, he squatted 575 pounds. [Coach James] Montgomery thought that Jeanty had maxed out. He was wrong. Now Jeanty easily squats 605 pounds 'like a hot knife through butter,' Montgomery says." —Mirin Fader, The Ringer, 5 Dec. 2024.

THE ODD WORD

Absquatulate

To leave abruptly

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Hard as a Rock

Meaning: The phrase 'Hard as a Rock' means very hard.
Origin: Rocks and stones are among hardest surfaces known to mankind, and though items described by the idiom 'hard as a rock' might not literally be as hard as a rock, they're typically much harder than the user would like them to be. No one is certain when this term was first used to figuratively describe something, but what is certain is that it's an idiom that's not difficult to understand.
Example: "This cake is as hard as a rock!"
